From The Rabbi

Our connection to the protection of our natural resources is a deeply rooted tradition. Hamisha Asar B'Shevat (literally, the 15th day of Shevat) is also known as Tu B'Shvat (the Hebrew letters Tet and Vav total the number 15). It is designated as Jewish Arbor Day or the New Year of the Trees. This year it begins the evening of February 9th.

The Mishnah's designation "New Year of the Trees" was not merely a poetic phrase. It had profound bearing on Jewish law. In order to observe certain mitzvot it was necessary to know how old a tree was. Tu B'Shevat was the official "birthday" for all trees and this day was the official deadline. In Temple days, offerings had to be set aside from all new fruit and crop produce. Fruit gathered from the previous year's produce could not be used for tithes due on fruit gathered in the next year. The age of the tree was significant from another halachic aspect. The law of orlah forbids eating from fruit trees during the first three years after they have been planted.

Today Tu B'Shevat is a time to consider our more general connection to the earth and our obligation to take care of it. The Jewish tradition of 'tikkun olam' repairing the world-- can be taken in an ecological as well as a spiritual sense. On this day, then, we can renew our commitment to this philosophy by taking matters into our own hands. For example, we could commit ourselves to planting a garden, lobbying our politicians to protect our natural resources, by planning a family recycling project and giving to the J.N.F. to help the land of Israel.

At TBA, our Religious school will be celebrating with a Seder, Sunday, February 9th at and with a special planting. From their youngest years our students learn the importance of appreciating the natural world and understanding our role as responsible stewards.

We look forward to seeing you on Sunday night, February 9th, as we celebrate with our special Tu B'Shevat Wine Tasting with details coming soon. This adult holiday celebration is one not to be missed. This year's event will feature clean and crafted wines that are almost completely free of sulfites and other flavor enhancers. You will taste and feel the difference.

To a lively and healthy 2020,

Rabbi Mark Blazer

BOOK CLUB

Helen Watt, a British historian facing retirement, and her much younger American assistant, Aaron Levy, are asked to examine a cache of documents found in a London townhouse, purported to be the work of a blind rabbi in 1661 and written out by a copyist known only as Aleph. Aaron is brash and right from the outset rubs prickly, Parkinson's-suffering Helen the wrong way. But they are forced to work together after Helen realizes that Aleph was most probably a Jewish woman—unheard-of for the 17th century. In alternating chapters, we see life of the copyist, Ester Velasquez, as an immigrant from Amsterdam, her friendship with a wealthy Jewish merchant's daughter, her attempts to survive the plague and the Great Fire of London, and her covert correspondence with the preeminent minds of the period, including rogue philosopher Benedictus de Spinoza. Meanwhile, in the present, Helen and Aaron overcome academic infighting, rival historians, and greedy house owners to uncover Ester's fate. What they find out about her life informs what they ultimately learn about themselves. Ester's story illuminates the plight of London Jews in the 17th century, and Helen and Aaron's sparking relationship is vivid and memorable, as the two historians discover how desire can transcend time.

We will resume our Thursday session on Jan. 16th and Sunday on Jan. 26th due to the MLK holiday.

SISTERHOOD PURPOSE & BOARD:

The purpose of Sisterhood at TBA is to have a group of women that come together and support one another while also participating in a variety of programs of choice. In doing so, Sisterhood supports the community of Temple Beth Ami along with a generous financial donation at the end of each fiscal year.

Happy New Year

First I would like to thank Doreen Hawbecker for putting together a great boutique. We had some fun new vendors and some oldies which we all like. In response to the wine from Scout and Cellar we will be having a wine tasting party on February 9th in honor of Tu B'Shevat!!!! Any excuse... We hope you can join us.

The next few months include some of staple events as well as some new ones. Coming up is our largest event of the year with our Maj Jong day on January 12th. You won't want to miss out. We will have beginner and learning stations for those that do not play. Please contact Jennifer at jennifertwitchell@gmail.com. Also this month we are working on a night at Bitter Root Pottery so stay tuned for more information.

Our annual retreat is an opportunity to get away, learn, relax and meet new people. This year we are planning on getting an Airbnb close to the beach in Ventura. We are taking deposits now so we can book something and have an idea on numbers. Please contact Judith at jstolnitz@yahoo.com for more information. The retreat will be April 24th-26th and this year will include a cooking class for Friday night dinner.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at some fun events.
